Means of Communication	Is it Passive, Aggressive or Passive-Aggressive? ;)
Emailing your local councillor	Passive
Emailing your local council officer	Passive
Writing about the issue online, hoping some gentle public pressure will	1 400170
encourage a response	Passive-Aggressive
Submitting an FOI request, which the council will need to respond to, and		I don't think an FOI request submit via http://www.whatdotheyknow.com/	Aggressive	is aggressive. It's neutral.
Writing a letter to local councillor/s or council officers	Passive
Telephone	Passive
Going to a councillor/officer's local pub and cornering them into a conversation	Passive-Aggressive
Attending a councillor's surgery	Passive
Getting to know people who work there	neither - it's communal
Talk to a journalist	Passive and Passive Aggresive
Stage a photo call	Passive and Passive-Aggresive
Tweeting to an official council account	Passive
Tweeting to local councillor accounts	Passive
Protesting outside council offices	Aggressive
Adding comments to Council facebook page	Passive
Writing a letter to the local paper hoping to elicit a response	Aggressive
Complete the Socitm Insight website survey or similar to give feedback	Passive Ask a council official who is speaking at a conference a question as a resident of 'their' council in a public session	Aggressive Ask a council official who is speaking at or attending a conference a question as a resident of 'their' council in a private session	Passive aggressive
Comment on a council leader or chief execs blog	Constructive
Report an issue on FixMyStreet	Assertive ;-)
Spoil your local election ballot paper by writing your feelings about an issue on it
Stand in local elections as a single-issue candidate to get your views out there	Democratically aggressive :D
Starting a hyperlocal blog and writing a news story about the issue	passive/aggresive
Posting on the messageboards of the local paper/other media	passive/aggresive
Making an appointment to see your local councillor/s	Constructive
Staging a sit-in at council offices	Aggressive
Organising a community meeting, having invited key councillors and council	Compting officers	Constructive
Respond to consultation events	Constructive
Start an e-petition (available on council websites)	Passive-Aggressive ?
Start an e-petition (available on Central Government website)	Aggresive
Pax	Passive
Call in at a face to face contact centre (like a First Stop Shop)	Passive
Complete an e-form for a specific task	Passive
Heckle at a council meeting	Aggresive (and never constructive)
Vote, baby, vote. Still the original. Still the best.	Passive / Passive-Aggresive
Complete an online questionaire	Passive
Complete a Facebook survey	Passive
Stay at home	Passive
Go to a council office	Passive
Go round to a councillors home	Passive-Aggresive
Get a solicitor to write a letter	Aggresive
Get your MP to take up your case and contact your council	Aggresive
Get your local radio DJ to take up the issue	Aggresive
Write a poem	Aggresive
Stage a play	Passive-Aggresive
Write a book	Passive-Aggresive
Form a travelling band of minstrels to perform a play or mime based on the issue you want to raise	Passive-Aggresive

Means of Communication	Is it Passive, Aggressive or Passive-Aggressive? ;)
Stage a Flickr meet to highlight an issue	Passive-Aggresive
Stage a mass trespass or occupation	Aggresive
Post an image to Flickr or a photo sharing website	Aggresive
Organise a postcard or letter writing campaign	Aggresive
Stick a flag in the issue and take its picture (The Will Perrin method)	Aggresive	see http: //kingscrossenvironment. com/2008/04/09/islington- lon/	rub their brand in the offending issue - better when you have run out of all other options. unlikely to achieve much but entertaining for those invovled - WP
Create an infographic	Passive-Aggresive / Aggresive	1011/	those involved - vvi
Create a data visualisation to illustrate a point	Aggresive
Get children to draw pictures about the situation and how it makes them feel	Passive-Aggresive
Write a song	Passive-Aggresive Passive-Aggresive
write a sorig	i assive-ngglesive		It's meant to be tongue-in-cheek - there are plenty of dubious types
Claim to be a "community leader"	Passive-aggressive	Also crap	who have an inflated influence by making such a claim
Highlight your issue through the medium of interpretive dance	Passive
Run a graffiti workshop	Passive (if legal) Aggressive (if illegal)
Bake them a cake	Passive	But potentially tasty:)
Skywrite your message above Council offices	Passively expensive Hire a plane to pull a banner showing your message/website/contact details around town	See above ;)
Buy outdoor advertising in strategic places	Passive
Create a bus-side advertising campaign	Passive
Get supporters out there wearing sandwich boards	Passive

Means of Communication	Is it Passive, Aggressive or Passive-Aggressive?;)
Print this list off and nail it to the door of the council house		